DUEDILLY ENTERPRISE COMPLIANCE & COUNTERPARTY RISK POLICY (v2026.1)

Section 1: General Principles

All counterparties onboarded by DueDilly employees must undergo automated screening against sanctions, watchlists, adverse media, and jurisdictional risk before contract execution.

Section 2: Contract Value & Financial Exposure Thresholds

Clause 2.1: Any proposed engagement with anticipated contract value exceeding SGD 100,000 (one hundred thousand Singapore Dollars) mandates comprehensive vendor due diligence questionnaire (DDQ) verification and beneficial ownership audit.
Clause 2.2: Contracts exceeding SGD 500,000 require senior compliance officer sign-off and enhanced audited financial verification.

Section 3: Politically Exposed Persons (PEP) & State Connections

Clause 3.6: Any counterparty where a director, senior executive, beneficial owner (>10%), or individual subject is declared as or matched to a Politically Exposed Person (PEP) requires immediate triggering of Enhanced Due Diligence (EDD) Questionnaire and source of funds declaration.

Section 4: Country & Jurisdictional Risk

Clause 4.1: Counterparties incorporated in, operating from, or flagged under jurisdictions with a Transparency International Corruption Perceptions Index (CPI) score below 40, or listed on FATF Call for Action / Increased Monitoring, trigger mandatory DDQ disclosures.

Section 5: Entity-Specific Risk Controls

Clause 5.2 (Intermediaries): All engagements categorized under "3rd Party Reps & Brokers", intermediaries, or sales agents mandate statutory due diligence questionnaires regardless of initial contract value.
Clause 5.4 (Maritime & Vessels): Maritime vessels flying flags of convenience (e.g., Panama, Liberia, Marshall Islands) or exhibiting recorded AIS telemetry dark periods exceeding 12 hours require mandatory vessel questionnaire submission, charterer verification, and IMO registry audit.

Purpose and instructions

[Issuing Company] requires every new supplier to complete this Counterparty Due Diligence Questionnaire (CDDQ) before onboarding, and to update it every [24] months or when its circumstances change. The answers let us assess bribery, corruption, conflict of interest and sanctions risk.

How to complete it

1. Answer every question. Write "Not applicable" with a reason rather than leaving a field blank.
2. Where a question asks Yes / No and you answer Yes, give full details in the Response column or on a separate sheet referenced by question number.
3. Answers cover the Supplier, its parent company, subsidiaries and any entity it controls, unless a question says otherwise.
4. Capitalised terms (for example Government Official, Beneficial Owner) have the meanings in the Appendix.
5. Return the completed and signed questionnaire, with the supporting documents below, to [compliance@issuingcompany.com] within [14] days.

Supporting documents to attach

- [ ] Certificate of incorporation or business registration extract (issued within the last 3 months)
- [ ] Shareholder register and group ownership chart down to the Beneficial Owners
- [ ] Identity document for each Beneficial Owner and each director
- [ ] Copies of the policies referred to in Section 6
- [ ] Latest audited financial statements
