INTERNATIONAL REGULATORY COMPLIANCE DIRECTIVE & TRADE SANCTIONS LIST 2026

Issued by Global Compliance Governance in coordination with US OFAC, European Union Council, and UN Security Council.

Section 1: General Prohibitions on the Russian Federation.
In accordance with Executive Order 14024 and EU Council Regulation 833/2014, comprehensive sectoral sanctions, maritime oil price cap restrictions, financial asset freeze, and export controls are active on Russia and the Russian Federation. Entities with state ownership exceeding 50 percent or operations originating in Russia are strictly prohibited from trade.

Section 2: Comprehensive Embargo on the Islamic Republic of Iran and North Korea.
Comprehensive trade embargoes and financial asset freezes remain enforced against Iran and North Korea DPRK. All financial transactions, banking relationships, and corporate partnerships with Iranian or North Korean counterparties are bloc

Section 3: Sectoral and Territorial Restrictions on Syria, Belarus, Cuba, and Venezuela.
Targeted trade sanctions and arms export embargoes apply to Syria, Belarus, Cuba, and Venezuela.

Section 4: Maritime Transport, Dark Fleet, and STS Prohibitions.
All commercial vessels engaging in dark fleet operations, AIS switch-offs, or ship-to-ship crude transfers are prohibited.